THE JOURNEY IS THE DESTINATION...

...on the Middlesex Grassroutes Trail. The Grassroutes meander through Middlesex County, giving visitors a taste of the local food, culture, heritage and natural sites along the way. Follow the Grassroutes Trail in its entirety or hop on along the route. Either way you'll find signs to point you to some of the best tourism hot spots that Middlesex County has to offer.

EXPLORE THE TRAILS

Step in to the wild with the Middlesex Trails Guide that includes routes for hiking, running, mountain biking, horseback riding, cross-country skiing, snowshoeing and birdwatching. Lush deciduous forests, wetlands, meadows, and shrublands support the variety of wildlife in the County. Don't miss Skunk's Misery, one of the largest and most environmentally significant woodland and wetland areas in the Carolinian Region.

BE A GOOD SPORT

Middlesex residents take their sports seriously. Middlesex hosts tournaments for hockey, softball, soccer and every sport in between. Strong community pride and investment in arenas, sports fields and community centres have helped shape renowned local athletes such as Olympic Gold Medalist Scott Moir and NHL players Brian Campbell, Logan Couture, Matt Read, Drew Doughty, Boone Jenner, Lawson Crouse and Travis Konecny.

TASTE THE LOCAL FLAVOURS

Discover the region's local fare restaurants, specialty shops, retail farms, and markets selectively listed in the Middlesex County Culinary Guide. Get connected with the freshest produce, homemade goods, and the wide selection of delicious cuisine. Local family run operations like Kustermans, Heemans, Arrowwood Farm and Apple Land combine a day's worth of activities including u-pick, ready-pick, nurseries, bakeries, cafes, gifts and family fun. And what better way to make the most of your experience than by visiting our local restaurants, coffee shops and pubs such as the Rusty Wrench, Clocktower Bistro, Mj's Roadhouse, and the Fat Olive to name a few, are just some of the places to visit in the County's burgeoning gastronomic scene!

STEP BACK IN TIME

Middlesex is the home to many historic sites, buildings and cemeteries. Discover the stories of the Donnellys, the Barn Quilt Trails and the Battle of the Longwoods. The Heritage Trail marks the history of the people and places in Middlesex with stories of pioneer settlements, significant battles, historical buildings and noteworthy events. While you are out on the trail, be sure to stop at our museums for more enlightening information and displays of the past.

CELEBRATE

All the charms of Middlesex County come together in exhibitions, festivals, concerts and special events in every season. Highlights include the Strathroy Hometown Festival, Lucan Baconfest, Oxford Renaissance Festival, Rockin Wheel, Art in the Barn, and the re-enactment of the Battle of the Longwoods. Take your pick of fall fairs across the County. Each one has its unique twist on a celebration of the harvest season with entertainment, exhibits, rides, competitions and lots of local foods.

STAY AWHILE

Get ready for a good night's sleep. Take your pick from convenient motels, cozy inns and welcoming bed & breakfasts while visiting Middlesex County. Enjoy a summer night around a campfire at one of the many conservation areas or private campgrounds.

www.visitmiddlesex.ca/stay

GO FOR A RIDE

Bikers, cyclists, paddlers and horseback riders can make their way in Middlesex. Take the Grassroutes, the Cruise the Coast motorcycling route or make your own path. Horse lovers will feel at home in this equestrian area where riding trails and stables abound. Dip your oar in the Thames and Sydenham rivers or our many ponds and fishing holes. When you need a break; a cold drink, a warm meal and a cozy room await in our charming towns and villages.
