MIDDLESEX COUNTY WARDEN KURTIS SMITH

During the Middlesex County Council Inaugural meeting today, Mr. Kurtis Smith, the Mayor of Adelaide Metcalfe was elected Warden.

“I am honoured to represent my County Council colleagues and the residents of Middlesex as Warden. Since the first moment I considered running for municipal election, I have dreamt of the opportunity to serve Middlesex County as Warden. I am looking forward to working with the entire Middlesex team to advance the outstanding progress that our community has made in the delivery of efficient and effective public services”

Warden Smith began serving the community of Adelaide Metcalfe in 2010 as a council member. In the 2014 municipal election he was elected as Mayor of the municipality and re-elected as Mayor in the 2018 election.

Warden Smith and his Wife Bridget reside in Adelaide Metcalfe.

Warden Smith replaces the 2018 Warden, Mrs. Marigay Wilkins. Past Warden Wilkins commented “While County Council is blessed with a number of terrific community leaders, I was very pleased that Council elected Kurtis as Warden this year. Undoubtedly, the combination of Kurtis’ education, experience and enthusiasm for Middlesex County will make him an outstanding Warden.”

Warden Smith will preside over his first regular meeting of Council on December 18th at 1PM.
